FOUR BOILERS BURST

Another Horrible Catastrophe Visits City of Pittsburg.

STEEL MILL COMPLETELY WRECKED.

Lives of Several Workmen Snuffed Out Instantly and Many Others Injured—Adjoining Boiler Shop and Residence in Ruins.

Pittsburg, Dec. 20.—The Black Diamond steel works of Park Brothers, on Thirtieth street, was the scene of an awful accident, in which at least five workmen lost their lives and 12 were injured.

Reports were freely circulated at first that from 10 to 30 were killed. It will not be known exactly how many are dead until the wreckage is cleared away.

It was when the night crew was about to turn over the mill to the day force that four boilers in the 10-inch bar mill No. 3 exploded with terrific force, scattering death and destruction in all directions. The mill was completely wrecked and the debris was piled from 50 to 75 feet high.

The boiler works of James McNeil, adjoining the Black Diamond mill, were also destroyed.

From what can be learned, the four boilers exploded at one time, reducing the mill to a heap of burned and charred timbers and twisted iron. There is not a straight piece of iron or steel left in the entire building. Even the bolts in the beams and stringers are twisted like screw nails.

The mill had 60 men on each turn, and almost 120 men, both crews, were in the plant at the time of explosion. They were all at work, or just about to begin work, and all the night men were clad in their scanty working attire. When the boilers exploded a panic ensued and the men fought their way to the entrances, and all that were able rushed to the street. The injured and known dead were found under wreckage and in the mill yard.

The No. 3 10-inch mill was a big ironclad structure, built on a steel frame. One of the boilers went through the Park Brothers' mill and crushed into the McNeil plant, almost completely demolishing it. The only man at work in the McNeil plant was Rudolph Korff, the night watchman. He was knocked down by the force of the explosion, was found in the plant, and taken to the West Penn hospital.

Another of the boilers went through the roof of the bar mill, soared through the air across Thirtieth street, and crashed into the residence of Robert Price. It went through the front wall and fell into the cellar, completely wrecking the house. Price and his family were asleep at the time, and had to rush into the street in their night clothes.

The other two boilers were blown to pieces, and it was these that caused the complete destruction of the mill.

A force of men went to work as quickly as possible after the explosion searching in the debris for the bodies. Biting cold winds from the river made the rescue work slow and painful.

The extent of the loss to Park Bros. company and the McNeil company is not known, but it is variously estimated at from $25,000 to $100,000.

Soho Explosion Victims.

Pittsburg, Dec. 20.—The police were notified that Alexander Clydesdale, who was in charge of the Soho furnace at the time of the explosion Thursday morning, is missing. The police believe he was cremated. He was married and had a family. This would make the list of killed reach 11. At Mercy hospital it was stated that the death of John Sabo was only a question of a few hours, and although Yentz is in a serious condition, the physicians stated that he had a slight chance of pulling through.

Ohio River Wreck.

Louisville, Dec. 20.—The steamer Jo B. Williams, belonging to the Monongahela Coal and Coke company of Pittsburgh, met with an accident in the Ohio river near Carrollton, Ky., which resulted in the loss of 175,000 bushels of coal, as well as seriously injuring the machinery of the boat. The Williams was going from Pittsburg south with a cargo of coal, and when she reached a point in the river near Carrollton her machinery became unmanageable and she ran into the Kentucky bank. Seven of her barges, containing 25,000 bushels of coal each, were sunk and the greater portion of her tow was scattered. The steamer Hat Brown went to her assistance, the scattered barges were recovered, and the Williams was taken in tow.

Argentina's Defi to Chile.

Buenos Ayres, Dec. 20.—Official circles are optimistic and expect a friendly settlement of the Chilean troubles. Rumors that the government is about to yield to Chilean pretensions has produced some popular irritation. A big demonstration was announced to follow the lecture of Dr. Zeballos, former Argentine minister at Washington, about the international question. The government thereupon published the following statement: "The Argentine Republic maintains and will maintain her rights. If Chile does not accept the proposal, this government will insist upon its acceptance. The people should be prepared for every emergency as the government is prepared."

GROUND BROKEN.

First Shovel of Earth Excavated For St. Louis Exposition.

St. Louis, Dec. 20.—The first public celebration in connection with the world's fair to be opened in St. Louis in 1903 in commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of the Louisiana purchase was held Friday, when ground was broken on the site in Forest park. This day was selected for the event because it is the anniversary of the formal transfer of the Louisiana territory to the United States, and it was a holiday in St. Louis, throughout Missouri, and in most of the "purchase states," whose governors issued proclamations asking for a general observance of it as "Louisiana Purchase Flag day."

Great preparations were made for the event, but owing to the unusual severity of the weather it was decided to abandon the parade and some of the most striking features.

Directors and officers of the Exposition company, General John C. Bates, Major Henry Hunter of the Fifteenth United States cavalry, and other army officers, governors of states and guests assembled at the St. Louis club and were driven to Forest park, where the ceremony of breaking ground was carried out. A huge fire was built on the site of the educational building to soften the ground, and the various officials of the exposition wielded the shovel.

The party then returned to town, where the remainder of the program was carried out at the Coliseum, which was crowded with thousands of persons, among them many children, the public schools having been closed for the day. On the platform were seated officers of the exposition, municipal officials, Congressman James A. Tawney, governors of states, national commissioners, members of the board of women managers, General Bates and staff, and other invited guests. Congressman Tawney was the chief orator on this occasion.

Tragic Mystery.

Parsons, Kan., Dec. 20.—When entrance was forced to the residence of Colonel John T. Bull, the body of Mrs. Bull was found lying upon the bed with a fatal stab in the right side and skull crushed. Near by was the body of Colonel Bull on the floor, face down, beside an overturned chair. An open pocket knife was lying near him, but was without bloodstains, and there was little evidence of a struggle. Colonel Bull was wealthy real estate dealer and an old soldier, having served through the civil war in an Ohio regiment. It is believed they were murdered, although the house was securely locked and had not been robbed. There were evidences of a struggle.

Russian Historian Coming.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 20.—Paul N. Miloukoff, the author of a number of historical works, including "Essays on the History of Civilization in Russia," will go to the United States in 1903, at the invitation of the Chicago university, to deliver a series of lectures on the subjects which he discusses in this work and on the Macedonian question. He is devoting his leisure hours to perfecting himself in the English language, that he may be able to deliver his lectures extemporaneously.

Tara's Hall Was Not Sold.

Dublin, Dec. 20.—The place in which the Irish kings were crowned, the historic Hall of Tara, in County Meath, was offered at auction. A wealth of legendary interest clusters about the spot, and authentic records show that the monarchs of Ireland were crowned there from 30 B. C. to 560 A. D. There were only two bidders when the place was offered at auction, and the highest bid, £2,920, was rejected. The property was reserved for private sale.

Watchman Killed a Burglar.

Summitville, Ind., Dec. 20.—As Night Watchman William Ray was making his rounds he encountered a burglar in the rear of Van Winkle's saloon. The burglar pulled his revolver on the watchman, but the latter fired and the burglar fell with a bullet in his breast and died in a few minutes. The dead man was acting as lookout for a pal who was inside the saloon. When the watchman's pistol cracked the second burglar made his escape.

Convicted of Murder.

Reading, Pa., Dec. 20.—Samuel Greason, colored, was found guilty of murder in the first degree. He was charged with being one of the principals in the murder of John Edwards the night of July 3. The other principal, Mrs. Kate Edwards, wife of the dead man, is now awaiting the death sentence.

DOWIE ON THE STAND.

Permitted to Unlimber His Tongue and Lay Bare His Heart.

SUBJECT OF HIS TALK WAS DOWIE.

Lauded Himself to the Skies But Samuel, His Brother-In-Law, Was Held Up to Scorn as Unworthy of His Favor.

Chicago, Dec. 20.—"Dr." John Alexander Dowie, the proclaimed "Elijah the Restorer," broke down when he went on the witness stand in his own behalf, and between choking sobs told how his confidence in his brother-in-law and legal opponent, Samuel Stevenson, had been shaken. Later, as he was cross-examined, his meek and lowly demeanor changed, and he denounced Stevenson, called him an "abominable traveling companion," and said that he was of no use in "Zion" and was always blundering.

Dowie talked in court to his heart's content Friday in defending the suit against him for a receivership for his Zion lace industries. He intimated to Mr. Reeves, the attorney who was cross-examining him, that he liked to talk, and he was granted permission to lay bare his heart.

"Dowie" was the main topic of his story, and with much show of higher education, Latin quotations and attempts at witticisms he brought smiles and merriment to his many followers who thronged the court room, until they fled to be quieted by one of his deacons. In substance he declared, with much emphasis, that he was no tyrant surrounded by hordes of willing slaves. Rather, he explained how he worked tirelessly for the good of his community, sometimes as much as 27 hours at a stretch. He said he abhorred slaves, and would allow none to work for him who did not come to him voluntarily. He gave Stevenson's testimony flat denial, and said that his brother-in-law lied when he quoted Dowie's sister as saying "Thank God, we are free from that tyrannical rule now." He stated that it was impossible for him to consider a partnership with Stevenson, inasmuch as plaintiff shows a total lack of financial ability.

During the cross-examination of Dowie by Mr. Reeves admissions were drawn out that Dowie paid Stevenson $85,000 on account, but that $50,000 of this was at once turned over to Dowie's sister, Mrs. Stevenson, who at once gave it to Dowie, it is said, for stock in the lace industries; also that $30,000 was given to Frank Woodward, but Dowie insisted that was for debts Stevenson had contracted. The attorney then drew from Dowie that after parting with his entire business, including lace machinery, patterns and stock, Stevenson got out of the bargain only $5,000. Then Mr. Reeves tried to show that the entire liabilities of Zion lace industries were $1,168,000, including stock dividends, etc., but Dowie said the conjecture was foolish.

The direct question was then put to Dowie whether he believed he was Elijah, the prophet, to which he replied he was willing to express his views, but they were already on the record of the court.

Sampson's Protest Filed.

Washington, Dec. 20.—The objection of Admiral W. T. Sampson to that portion of Admiral Dewey's report of the Schley court of inquiry in which he says Admiral Schley was in command at the battle off Santiago and entitled to the credit for the victory, was filed with Secretary Long Friday. It is a voluminous document, and claims that Admiral Schley was not in command but was second in command, and that Admiral Sampson was recognized by the president of the United States and the secretary of the navy as being in command off Santiago. It is alleged that the Brooklyn's maneuver during the action destroyed any claim Commodore Schley might have had to command; that the facts as to the loop found by the court show that to avoid danger to his own ship he maneuvered without warning to the rest of the squadron and in disregard of the fleet formation.

Bank Robbed by One Man.

Fayetteville, Ark., Dec. 20.—At Springdale, one man drove up to the bank when no one was in except the assistant cashier, whom he compelled to deliver $7,500 from the vault. A citizen who entered the bank at the time was also covered by the robber's revolver. The robber got away, but dropped $1,000 on the sidewalk. Bloodhounds were put on his trail.

Crashed into a Caboose.

Pittsburg, Dec. 20.—The Cumberland express of the Baltimore and Ohio ran into the caboose of a freight train at Scotthaven. The passenger engine was derailed and ditched, and Engineer Frank Hughes and his fireman were badly injured. The flagman of the freight, who was in the caboose, was also badly hurt. No passengers were injured.

St. Patrick's parochial school closed Friday afternoon until after the holidays. An entertainment was given in the school room by the children and Rev. Father Jones presented each child with a basket of candies, fruits and nuts. The good pastor did not forget the little tots who were confined to their homes by illness; he sent each of them a basket of the goodies.

In the Circuit Court Friday W. W. McIlvain, Jailer of Mason County, presented his account against the Commonwealth amounting to $887.80, which was allowed and ordered certified to the State Auditor for payment. Sheriff Perrine's account of $61.90, Judge Newell's amounting to $7, and Deputy Sheriff Mackey's amounting to $7.60, were also allowed and certified to the Auditor.

The pastors of Mt. Sterling, recognizing that the best thing to do in regard to the sale of liquors is to closely regulate it, met and passed resolutions, declaring in favor of a movement to better regulate the liquor traffic and urging that the number of saloons be lessened by increasing the license fee, and by rigidly enforcing the law in regard to keeping orderly houses, proper hours and Sunday closing.

SUFFERING FROM OVERWORK.

A Lexington Man Finds Himself in Maysville But Doesn't Know How He Got Here.

Lexington Herald.

Mr. S. L. Myers, the Assistant Manager of the local office of the Sun Life Insurance Company, who has been absent for the past two days is in Maysville, Ky.

Mr. Myers received a letter from him Thursday saying that he was well and in Maysville, but that he did not have the faintest idea how he got there. He had been promoted to take the position of manager in the Maysville office and overwork preparatory to the change and recent illness have affected him.

He left Lexington Tuesday afternoon and went to Paris where he stopped in at supper time to see a relative. He declined to eat supper and left hurriedly after making inquiries about trains. From Paris he went to Maysville.

Mr. Myers Thursday communicated with the Chief of Police at Maysville, whom she asked to care for him until today. Mr. Gordon, who is associated with Mr. Myers in the insurance business, has gone to Maysville to return with him. It is believed that with a short rest and recreation, Mr. Myers will be restored to health and that he will be able to enjoy the promotion which his faithful work so richly merits.

BIG FISCAL PROJECTS

Branch Bank and Trust Company to Locate in the Orient.

WILL DO BUSINESS IN PHILIPPINES.

Trust Scheme Has Been Officially Sanctioned and Will Become Custodian of Government Funds. Bank Plan to Be Authorized.

New York, Dec. 20.—Three distinct movements are under way having in view the establishment of American banking facilities in the orient. These include the establishment of branches at Shanghai and Manilla by the Guaranty Trust company; the establishment of a bank particularly organized for oriental business by a syndicate of which Edward H. Cragin is the head, and the establishment by a New York national bank of a branch at Manilla as soon as suitable legislation can be secured.

The first two of these movements have taken definite and tangible form but responsible details are thus far lacking regarding either the identity of the national bank which proposes to establish a branch at Manilla, or the legal form under which it is proposed such branch could be established. Two banks which have been more or less freely mentioned in connection with this rumor are the National City and the Chase National. These rumors have, however, been denied by representatives of both banks.

Vice President Turnbull of the Guaranty Trust company and Mr. Wise, one of the London managers of the company, sailed from San Francisco recently for the purpose of establishing branches of the trust company at Shanghai and Manilla. Consent to establish branches of the trust company has been given by the secretary of war and secretary of state. It is not the intention to capitalize the branches, but to conduct them as branches pure and simple.

Business will be begun as soon as possible after the turn of the year, and the company has given the authorities at Washington such assurances of its responsibility that it will, it is understood, receive on behalf of this government the first installment of the Chinese indemnity, and will in time become custodian, in whole or in part, of the civil and military funds at the Manilla station.

CABINET CHANGES.

Gage Soon to Retire and Rumors That May Do So Later.

Washington, Dec. 20.—It is Secretary Gage's intention to relinquish the treasury portfolio as soon as President Roosevelt can find a successor, and he has so informed the president. Mr. Gage would like to be relieved before spring. The president has tried to dissuade Secretary Gage from retiring, and will probably continue to use his efforts in that direction.

Secretary Gage's desire to retire was made known to the president some little time ago, just how long is not known. The conference between the president and secretary before the cabinet meeting Friday, which followed the secretary's return from New York, where he attended the banquet of the Bankers' association, had nothing to do with the question of Gage's resignation or the secretaryship.

After the cabinet meeting Secretary Gage declined to say anything about the rumors of his resignation beyond the simple statement that he had not "formally" resigned. "What I may or may not do eventually I am not prepared to say now," said he; "but I can say that the relations between the president and myself are perfectly cordial. He would do almost anything I would ask, and I would do almost anything he might ask."

Battle With Desperate Men.

THE BEE HIVE

THE BIG STORE! THE BIG STORE!

ALL UNDER ONE ROOF!

The convenience of having a big store like THE BEE HIVE to deal at in extreme winter weather like we are now having was proven yesterday by the crowds coming here, for they all knew that whatever gift they intend buying for either man, woman or child, could be found under one roof at THE BEE HIVE.

A gentleman from Cincinnati remarked yesterday: "I don't want to make you feel bad, but I must say that there were more people in your store than all the other stores in town put together." He was surprised!

He didn't know that this was The People's Store.
He didn't know that what we sell for 25c, others ask as high as $1 at Xmas time.
He didn't know that we give money back if purchase isn't satisfactory.
He didn't know that we sold nice books for 15c.
He didn't know we take pleasure in pleasing.
He didn't know that the 25c. table was the talk of the town.
He didn't know that we had a Doll room for the little folks.
He didn't know that we carry 12,000 Handkerchiefs for Xmas sale.
He didn't know that you could get an Aluminum Cigar Case for 25c.
He didn't know that you could get a beautiful Pin Tray for 10c.
In fact he didn't know—like you all know—THE BEE HIVE was for the people, of the people and by the people at all times and at Christmas times.

A Christmas tree will be one of the holiday attractions at the Christian Church Christmas Eve. Everyone invited.

Miss Bertie J. Pogue has returned from a very pleasant visit to Mrs. Riley Walker at Wedonia. Col. Bain will lecture at the Christian Church, Dec. 31st. Everyone should take advantage of the opportunity for hearing a good lecture.

Miss Hannah D. Collins, of Millcreek, was a pleasant visitor here the first of the week.

The cold wave has struck here with a vengeance.

Miss Minnie Tamme, of Paris, was the guest of friends the past week.

A few stores are wearing a holiday aspect. Youngsters are on the "qui vive," looking for Santa Claus.

In spite of the cold there was a good attendance at Mr. Tomlin's sale Wednesday afternoon. Good prices prevailed on all articles.

Rev. Holly preaches his farewell sermon at the Baptist Church Sunday. Mr. Holly made many friends during his stay here, and it is with regret that we learn of his decision to accept a pastorate in Florida.

Ice houses are being filled earlier than usual.

Sleigh bells are pleasantly jingling. Another fall of snow would make fine sleighing.

GERMANTOWN, Dec. 20th.—The play, "A Noble Outcast," rendered by home talent at Pythian hall Thursday night was well attended. Each presented well his or her part. Dan Lloyd as "Jerry the Outcast," was indeed perfect. J. E. Bell and Miss Adah Jolly as "Mr. and Mrs. Lee," were creditable. Miss Jennie Tucker as "France," could not have been surpassed. Miss Dora Renaker as "Sadie, the House Maid," was grand. Bob Tucker as the villain was splendid in his representation, and Wood Wallingford as France's lover was all that a lover could be. The play will be rendered again on the night of the 26th. Proceeds to be given to K. of P. hall and parsonage fund. Everybody come and bring some body with you.

A lazy liver may be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It is all right for the back of a lazy man. But it would be a savage as well as a stupid thing to beat a weary man or a starving man because he lagged in his work. In treating the lagging liver it is a great mistake to lash it with drastic drugs. In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred a torpid or sluggish liver is but a symptom of an ill-nourished body, whose organs are weary with overwork. Let your liver alone. Start with the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in proper working order, and see how quickly your liver will become active and energetic. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burdens imposed upon it by the defection of other organs.
